Scout _____ has become a candidate for the rank of Eagle Scout. As you know, the Eagle rank is the highest and most honored in the Boy Scouts of America. Young men who have achieved this rank in the past have almost universally risen to the highly respected positions in their chosen vocational pursuits and have retained into their adult years the ideals of community service which they were taught as Scouts.

Naturally, it is our desire to maintain the Eagle Scout Rank as a symbol of outstanding achievement. We therefore examine much more thoroughly the references and qualifications of the Scouts who appear before us as candidates for this rank. Your assistance and cooperation in answering the questions below and adding your own comments will greatly facilitate our efforts.

Thank you for your help. It is our intention to keep your replies confidential.

Sincerely yours,

The Eagle Scout Board of Review
